

Circles of Life Conference 2019

Call for Presenters

Circles of Life Conference 2019 35th Annual Statewide Conference: May 2 – 3, 2019 Holiday Inn – Convention Center, Stevens Point, Wisconsin

The Circles of Life Conference invites you to submit a proposal (or two) for the 2019 conference. Between 400-500 individuals with disabilities, their families and professionals from across Wisconsin attend the Circles of Life Conference each year. The conference is a unique opportunity for participants to develop new skills, learn up to date information and form lasting relationships.

We are looking for presenters including: parents, family members, youth and adults with disabilities, professionals, providers, volunteers, or other potential presenters with information or expertise in a broad range of topics that affect families and individuals with disabilities. Previous topics have included:

- Leadership and advocacy
- Community
- Education
- Family and self-care and wellness
- Health and mental health topics
- Long-term care
- Transition
- And many others...

We hope that you will consider submitting a proposal for the 2019 conference or share this information with other individuals who you think would be excellent presenters.

Please visit the Circles of Life website at circlesoflifeconference.com/call-for-presenters/ for application materials. The deadline for proposals is September 30, 2018.
